

«The Rehacop/g as a new integrative tool for neuropsychological rehabilitation in psychiatric and neurological disorders»

Natalia Ojeda del Pozo

The attendees to this workshop will:

- Learn the principles and general guidelines of neuropsychological rehabilitation that are used in the Rehacop Program
- Review the relevance and applications of the program for psychiatric disorders
- Review the relevance and applications of the program for neurological disorders
- Increase the knowledge about the scientific evidence of the efficacy of the program
- Identify the cognitive, clinical and functional outcomes of the cognitive rehabilitation with the Rehacop
- Learn about the brain changes in patients after receiving treatment with the Rehacop.